

Part I – The Search

What does the title “The Bab” mean?

What title did the Bab give Mulla-Husayn?

Describe the circumstances of the people awaiting the appearance of the Qa’im.

What instructions did Siyyid Kazim give his followers before his passing?

Why do you think Mulla Husayn spent 40 days in prayer and meditation before his search?

What qualities did Mulla Husayn demonstrate through his journey?

Part II – The Signs of the Promised One

How did the the Bab know that Mulla Husayn had arrived in Shiraz?

What questions did the Bab ask Mulla Husayn after they arrived at His home?

What indications did Siyyid Kazim give his students pertaining the person of the Qaim?

What personal tests did Mulla Husayn have prepared to determine the truth of anyone who proclaimed to be the Promised Qaim. Did the Bab posses the qualities that Mulla Husayn was searching for?

What does this story teach us about the importance of the independent investigation of truth?

Part III – The Transformation

Describe in your own words how Mulla Husayn felt about that memorable night during which he came to recognize the Bab.

What title did the Bab give to Mulla Husayn (What does it mean?)

What had to happen before the Bab could openly proclaim His Cause?

The Declaration of the Bab is described as the dawn of a new Day. What does that mean for humanity?